GERMAN RETREAT BECOMES ROUT

Invaders Exhaust Ammunition and Food Supply is short.

STILL FALLING BACK.

French Cavalry and Light Artillery Decimates Overwhelming Force of Number of Kaiser's Troops.

London, Sept. 12,, 3:15 p. m.—The great German army of invasion which has been engaged in desperate conflict with the combined forces of France and England to the east of Paris, is generally retreating. The shattered German armies are putting up but feeble resistance and are closely pursud by the allies. The general rarward movement of the kaiser's armies began when the center of the line began to fall back bfore the terrible onslaught of the allies.

Paris, Sept. 12—The German retreat on the French left is reported today to be gradually assuming the condition of a rout. The Germans almost exhausted their ammunition and their food supply is admittedly running low.

In the center the fighting is now most serious in the Argonne district, the Germans having been forced back several miles from Sezanne. They have also fallen back from their new position near Vitry-le Francois. Although heavily re-enforced, the Germans have been unable to resume the offensive anywhere and it is freely predicted today that the capital will be moved back to Paris some time next week.

The first and second British cavalry divisions, assisted by the French cavalry and light artillery, decimated an overwhelming force of Germans northeast of Paris. The Germanswere cut off from their base and although they fought well, they were completely routed, losing more than half their strength in killed and wounded. In addition the British took 6,000 prisoners and fifteen guns.

It is stated that, as a result of this capture,it is now confirmed that the Germans are short of all supplies. The prisoners taken were actually starving. The British fed them beef and biscuits, which they ravenously devoured.

The Germans have been separated completely as a result of their general retreat on the allies' left. General von Buelow's armies are divided into detachments retreating in different directions. As a result, they are proving easy to the British cavalry and cycling corps. A force of British cyclists found a German battalion in an isolated piece of woods. They surprised them and killed 150, taking the remainder prisoners.

The losses of the allied armies are again reported as being in the ratio of 3 to 1 less than the Germans, and it is declared that the German rifle fire does not improve.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mount Washington is snowbound, no trains having been up or down since Monday. Winds blowing as high as 120 miles an hour have been registered and the mercury is down to 20. The snow is four inches deep.

C. B. Howell and Miss Lizzie Griffin, both of Monroe, N. C., came to Charlotte, N. C., Sunday and committed suicide Monday evening by drowning in a lake at a local park. The bodies were recovered yesterday, belted together, following the finding of a note, with clothing, in a floating boat, which stated that the bodies were in the lake, "all for love," Howell was 35 years old, and leaves a widow and two chidren. Miss Griffin, 18 years old, was employed in a telephone office in Monroe, where her parents live.

President Wilson yesterday vetoed the bill to raise the limit of individual deposits in postal savings banks to $1,000, because it contained a provision repealing a section of the new bank law which provides that Federal funds must be deposited only with members of the Federal reserve system. The President suggested that the bill be amended to extend for another twelve months, the time allowed banks not members of the new system to surrender the government deposits they now hold.

According to dispatches received in Cincinnati at the offices of the Central Phosphate Company, the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, of Richmond, Va., filed a suit at Versailles, Ky., against the Central Kentucky Phosphate Company to foreclose a mortgage of $25,000 and asked that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the company's plant at Versailles and offices throughout Kentucky. The case wll be heard by Judge Stout, of the District Court at Frankfort, Ky., and a temporary receiver will be appointed. The present European war is given as the cause of the Kentucky company's alleged financial troubles.

For failure to observe the rules for the prevention of collisions of vessels, eleven launche owners on the Potomac River and other tributaries of Chesapeake Bay have been fined an aggregate of $1,550. One Washingtonian was fined $100 for operating after sunset without showing the proper lights and another $100 for not having sufficient life preservers.

The directors of the Southern Railway announced, after their meeting yesterday in New York, that, while the full dividends on the preferred stock had been earned in the last fiscal year, the directors agreed to postpone any action in declaring the usual dividend on the preferred stock for a month at least. This action was due to the unrest in the South over the cotton crop, due to the European war.

Prince Nicholas Engalitcheff, former Russian vice consul in Chicago, returning to America yesterday, made public a statement which he said had been given him in Paris by William A. Clark, former United States senator from Montana, with the request that it be given to the American press. The statement follows: "Tell the American people of this case, which I have investigated. It is that of a Belgian family, the father of whom was shot dead by the Germans and the mother lashed to a chair while the soldiers attacked her 16-year-old daughter before her eyes. The mother became a raving maniac. I have the daughter under my care here."

The finding of a .38-caliber revolver under the floor of a barn back of the Carman residence at Mineola, N. Y., is now believed to be the evidence that will force Mrs. Florence Carman to face trial on a first degree murder charge for the death of Mrs. Lulu D. Bailey. The revolver is believed by the police to have been the one with which Mrs. Bailey was shot early this summer in the office of Dr. Carman. Mrs. Carman was today in a state of collapse and attended by the jail physician. In a statement today, she said: "I am innocent of this crime charged against me as an unborn babe. The indictment and arrest were totally unexpected by me. I cannot understand how they could bring such a charge against me."

NO HOPES FOR SPEEDY PEACE

Winston Churchill Says There Will be no Compromise with Germany.

ENGLAND IS AROUSED

Working Day and Night on New War ships—Government Takes Over All Vessels For Service.

London, Sept. 12.—That there is not the slighest hope for speedy peace is accepted everywhere in England today. There will be no compromise with Germany.

This was made emphatically certain by no less a personage than Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty. His speech last night at the London Opera House is everywhere accepted as the final word of the government to the suggestions of compromise coming from the United States.

England will depend on her own resources to erush Germany. Kitchener has decided that a million men are to go to the Continent. And in revealing this, Churchill also made it very clear that his own department, the navy, expects to end forever the menace to peace of a German navy.

The speech was the most notable yet delivered in the present war. There was no claim made of continuous sweeping victory. Instead, the first lord warned that serious reverses must be expected and declared the goverment had made allowance for them.

"But it is our life or Germany's he declared, "and upon that there must and can be no compromise or truce. We must go forth unflinchingly to the end."

Churchill revealed for the first time that workmen are being hurried night and day on all of the new warships that are being laid lown. Every vessel building in an English yard, no matter for whom, has been taken over by the government and will be rushed into service with the war fleet immediately upon completion. Regarding the army, he said:

"To make the assitance of the empire complete in the present war we should put on the Continent and keep there army of not less than 1,000,000. That figure must be maintained no matter what the stress. By the new year Earl Kitchener tells me that we will have an additional half million men ready for the field. And in the summer of 1915 we will have twenty-five army corps in fighting shape."

CAVALRY DESTROYED

Germans Say They are Badly in Need of Horses.

London, Sept. 12.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph has sent the following from the front:

"The last remnants of the Germans' cavalry have been destroyed, and a large part of their mobile artillery and ammunition trains have been taken. Hugh numbers of their rank and file have been either captured or cut off.

"A wireless message to Berlin, which was intercepted here today, said:

"'We are badly in need of horses and supplies.'

"A German general who slept in an inn here last night, was overheard to say to one of his aids:

"'A great disaster has overtaken us.'

"An English officer of an aviation scouting corps remarked, 'It will be a miracle if any of these Germans get home again. Their only anxiety now is to increase the distance between themselves and their pursuers.'

"There can be no doubt that the tide has turned in the allies' favor. The great German coup has failed. There will be no siege of Paris, and the government can safely return from Bordeaux at once."

FEDERAL CONVICTS.

Governor Vested With Power to Restore Citizenship.

Richmond, Sept. 12—Governor Stuart has the right to restore the rights of citizenship on persons who are convicted in this State of charges by the Federal courts.

Such is the decision of Attorney General Pollard, who has passed on the question at the request of the Governor. The case in point rose several days ago.

A citizen of Virginia was convicted in the Federal courts and served a term in prison. He lost his right to vote by reason of the conviction. The man has reformed and is living correctly. He wanted to vote, but was denied registration.

He then appealed to the Governor, and the question was raised as to whether the Governor could restore a man who had been convicted in the Federal courts. There is no provision in Federal law whereby the political disability of a man convicted in a Federal court can be restored.

Attorney General Pollard rules that it is within the province of the Governor to remove the political disabilities of such a man and it is expected that he will soon make an order to this effect in the case pending before him.

SITUATION OF THE JUDICIARY

Five Vacancies Supplied by Governor Affected By Opinion.

UP TO LEGISLATURE

Attorney General Holds That Gubernatorial Appointments Become Automatically Vacant.

Richmond, Sept. 12—The five vacancies in the judiciary of the Commonwealth occuring since Governor Henry C. Stuart's administration began, and which were supplied by gubernatorial appointment, will all become automatically vacant again if the General Assembly fails to elect successors to the judges, resigned or deceased at the extra session to be convened this coming winter.

It is up to the Legislature to decide whether Governor Stuart's appointees shall continue on the bench. The situation is in some phases without precedent.

The perplexing conditions are disclosed in an opinion submitted yesterday by Attorney-General John Garland Pollard n response to a request made by Governor Stuart recently. According to the Attorney-General's interpretation of the constitutional law bearing upon the unique situation, the appointments to the bench made by Governor Stuart are, in effect, annulled by the assembling of the two branches of the State Legislature. Properly speaking the pro tempore term of each of the five judges is terminated when the General Assembly convenes.

The five judges thus affected in the order of their appointment to the judiciary by the Governor, are: Judge Preston W. Campbell, Twenty-third Circuit, succeeding Judge F. B. Hutton, resigned; Judge Thomas E. Blakey, Twelfth Circuit, succeeding Judge T. R. B. Wright, deceased; Judge P. H. Dillard, Thirtieth Circuit, succeeding Judge J. Lawrence Campbell; Judge A. E. King, Corporation Court of the city of Roanoke, succeeding Judge Waller R. Staples, resigned, and Judge Floyd H. Roberts, Corporation Court of the city of Bristol, succeeding Judge Joseph L. Kelly, resigned.

The situation is especially interesting from a political viewpoint in that the Governor's selections for the judiciary were, in some instances, not in accord with the desire of the representatives of the distriet in the General Assembly. The appointment of Judge King to the Roanoke bench, for example, was made over the openly declared opposition of the delegation from that city.

Whether the friends of disappointed candidates for the judgeship will see in the situation now presented an opportunity to renew the fight to put their respective favorites on the bench only time can determine. When the vacancies in the judiciary were supplied contingencies such as have arisen were undreamed of.

RUSSIANS GAIN GREAT SUCCESS

Left Wing of Austrian Main Army Cut Off and Capture Likely.

WILL MOVE TO BERLIN

Servian and Montenegrin Armies Invade Bosnia and Drive Austrians Before Them.

London, Sept. 12, 3:58 p. m.—A telegram received by the Rome Messagere from Petrograd states that the second great battle in Galicia between the Russians and the Austro-German forces has resulted even more satisfactorily to Russians than the first. The losses of Austrians are estimated at 130 000 of whom 90,000 are prisoners.

Petrograd (St. Petersburg), Sept. 12—That the Russian field forces have gained notable successes over the Austrian and Germans along the Russian Poland and Galician frontiers was announced at the war office today. In addition, it is declared, the driving movement of the Russians against the Austrian main army has completely cut off the Austrian left wing, commanded by General Dankl and that its capture or utter destruction is now considered certain.

The war office also confirms the reported capture of Tomaezow, where General Von Auffenberg's troops were reported strongly intrenched. It is stated, unofficially, but from a reliable source, that there will be no attempt at a general advance into East Prussia at this time. The Russian plan of campaign from the outset has been planned with the complete crushing of the Austrian offense in mind.

After Austria is crushed and the effectiveness of its fighting line ended, then the main Russian army will move against Berlin. But at no time will it move through East Prussia.

The campaign in that section will be more in the nature of a defensive than of an offensive one. It is not even certain that any determined effort is to be made to take Koenigsberg, which is now being besieged and bombarded in a desultory manner.

A strong force, however, will be maintained in this section, prepared to check any attempt at any invasion n force by the Germans sent from the east.

Nish, Sept, 12—The combined Servian and Montenegrin armies which are marching to capture Sarajevo capital of Bosnia, are now close to that city.

They are driving the Austrians before them, and are taking many prisoners. The Bosnian people are welcoming the Servians with open arms, and many of them are joining the army of invasion.

Meanwhile the armies of the crown prince have followed up their occupation of Semlin. The towns of Mitrovieza, Jarac, Herlkovce, Klenac, Kupinova, and Boljevce, on the Save river, are now held by the Austrians. At the same time another Servian force has crossed the Danube near Belgrade. It is the intention of the Servian government to drive the Austrians from the vicinity of Belgrade, which has been almost completely destroyed by the Austrian bombardment.

The Servian losses in the battle of Semlin are declared to be very small. Those of the Austrians were large. Several thousand prisoners, many guns, and general supplies were taken by the Servians.

A dispatch to the London Daily Mail received today from Antwerp says that a Belgian, single-handed, captured a German train loaded with food, arms and ammunition, together with 600 German soldiers. Noticing that the engineer of the tain, which had halted, was temporarily absent, the Belgian jumped into the cab and drove the train to Lierre, where he turned it over to the Belgian troops.

A fine of $10 and $5.70 costs were assessed for illegal hunting, and $10 fine and $1.80 costs for the assault. Sims was also required to furnish bond for his good behavior in future.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

James B. Fitzgerald Elected Last Night Succeeds John T. Harrison on Light.

Council committees which practically have direction over all of the municipal affairs are organizing for the fall and winter work. Practically all of the committees were changed by the presidents of the two boards last Tuesday because of the many new members in both branches of the city government.

The first committee to organize was the light commitee which met last night at the city gas office. James B. Fitzgerald, of the Board of Aldermen, was elected chairman, in place of J. T. Harrison, who is no longer a member of the committee. Meetings of other committees are expcted early next week. As has been stated in the Gazette, sessions of City Council will not be delayed by tardy methods of committees during the next year, President Henry K. Field, of the Board of Aldermen, and Howard W. Smith, of Common Council, have suggested to the committees that they hold their meetings at least an hour in advance of the time scheduled for the meeting of Council. They can transact their business and be ready to make their report when the two boards are called to order. The committees have agreed to carry out the suggestions.

Committee Declare that Statements About Water Supply Were Incorrect.

After a week's delay the committee on school houses and furniture, of the city school board composed of J. Frank Myers, and T. M. Ervin, called at the Gazette office today and presented a statement purporting to give their side of the controversy caused by their refusal to accept an offer of the Robert Portner Brewing Company to furnish casks and water to the public schools:

The Gazette publishes the statement in full, but wishes it to be clearly understood in doing so that it stands by its first editorial, word for word and letter for letter. A representative of the Gazette called for an explanation before the first article was published and was unable to secure one despite the fact that the committee now gives as its reason that they refused the Portner offer "in order to eliminate every semblance of politics from our school board matters."

The statement is as follows:

Owing to the many misleading statements appearing in the Alexandria Gazette and the Washington papers regarding the recent action of the City School Board in the matter of supplying water to the schools the undersigned committee desires to make the following statement:

Captain W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of schools, presented a proposition as coming from Mr. Peter W. Von Westlaken of the Robert Portner Brewing Company stating that they would furnish free of cost to the City School Board a sufficient number of casks, shalaced inside, and also the water.

Any and all other statements which have been made in the newspapers or otherwise, adding to the proposition such items as free spigots, drinking cups, ice and hauling water to the schools are absolutely false and were not offered to the school board or to this committee. At the same time however another proposition was offered the board which this committee found would cost the city just six dollars and forty cents more than the other, and in order to eliminate every semblance of politics from our school board matters, we decided to accept the latter proposition.

The reason for such decison was given to the Alexandria Gazette's representative, when he called, but he now states that the true statement as given to him was not published. In its stead however appeared the editorial of Saturday, September 5th which led the public to imagine that a great imposition had been thrust upon the city.

WHY THE NEED OF HARSH LANGUAGE?

One sultry Sunday, many years ago Henry Ward Beecher took his seat in his pulpit in Brooklyn. While mopping his forehead he astonished his congregation by exclaiming in tones sufficiently loud to be heard over in a large portion of the edifice, "It's damn hot!"

When Beecher started to deliver his sermon he referred to his comment upon the weather conditions and excused his use of unconventional language by saying he merely quoted the literal words of a man he passed on the sidewalk as he was about to enter the church Continuing he attempted to prove to his hearers that he was guilty of no impropriety in repeating the man's words.

The majority of his congregation, however, did not adopt his view, and his apologists acknowledged that he was guilty of a lapsus linguae.

During political campaigns many hasty and unnecessary words are used by enthusiasts in all camps. Ministers who voluntarily enter the list at such times are often remiss in not having their tongues properly lashed. Our Lord's injunction —"Let your communication be yea and nay, and whatsoever exceedeth of evil"—should be observed by all, especially those who pose as examples of their flocks, and when acrobatic evangelical reformers, use vulgarisms or repeat harsh and unseemly language from pulpits or in public prints, they fail to appeal to the thoughful and make themselves cheap. In fact, they do more harm than good to the causes they espouse.

In this connection our attention has been called to an article in The Statewide, a small sheet issued in the interest of the prohibition movement, edited and published under the direction of several local preachers and distributed in the churches of the city. The Statewide says:

"Everyone knows where the Gazette stands on this great and vital question and what and whose interest it represents. The news that it prints in reference to Statewide prohibition, in the language of Uncle Joe Cannon: "It is like the water that flows over the dam. It makes a H—of a splash, but has nothing to do with the grinding of the grist."

TURNING OF THE TIDE OF BATTLE.

From present indications there is every reason to believe that the German invasion of France is about to prove a failure. The kaiser's army has been rudely halted and forced back and it is now retreating.

The moral of an old fable is applicable. A dog ran a hare, but the latter made its escape. When the canine was upbraided for failing to secure its prey, the dog replied: "I was running for a supper; the hare was running for its life." William invaded France in order to gain glory by crushing a weaker country. The latters national existence was staked upon the result of the conflict.

Over half a million of the German hosts who attacked little Belgium and rode into France with their banners, have been killed, wounded or are missing during a campaign not two months old. Portions of the invading army are finding themselves short of ammunition and provisions, while most of ther cavalry has been destroyed.

The cry of "On to Paris!" fails to enthuse as it did a few weeks ago, Conditions in Berlin are gloomy, although efforts are being made by censors to keep the world at large in ignorance of what is transpiring in the German capital.

According to a dispatch from Rotterdam the authorities of Berlin have requested that citizens will cease mourning. Practically every family in the capital has lost a relative in the war, and the large number of somber-clad persons on the streets, it is feared may have a depressing effect on the populace. All barges on the Rhine have been converted into hospitals to care for the numerous wounded."

OPPOSE PROHIBITION.

Judge Bell And General Stith Bolling Give Reasons.

Richmond, Sept 12.—Judge Alden Bell, of Culpeper, in an open letter, declares his opposition to Statewide prohibition for the reasons that it fails to prohibit and that it is aborrent to the fundamental principles of For many years Judge Bell has democratic government. represented his county in the General Assembly, and has taken an active part in shaping the laws of the State, many of which he has personally written into the statutes. He is considered one of the ablest men in his section of Virginia, and is, therefore, well qualified to pass upon the prohibition question.

General Stith Bolling, one of the most gallant Confederate generals that fought for the South, has come out in a letter stating his position in regard to statewide prohibition, declaring he will vote to sustain the present local option laws, as prohibition would throw the liquor business into the hands of irresponsible and lawless persons. General Bolling for a number of years was postmaster of Petersburg. During the war he was wounded seven times. Until recently he was commander of the Virginia Camp of Confederate Veterans. He resigned on account of ill health.

AUSTRIANS BEHIND WOMEN.

Soldiers Charged With Placing Them Between Firing Lines.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—M. Gennitch, former minister of the interior for Servia, writing from Nish, Servia, accuses the Austrian soldiers of committing atrocities upon Servians. His letter, in part, follows:

"Whole districts around Shabatz (Sebats), the second most important city in Servia, have been devastated by Austrian troops. When the Austrians were occupying Shabatz they summoned all the women and children in the city and placed them between the firing lines. Previous to firing a volley the Austrians would order those terror-stricken civilians to lay down then they would shoot over the prostrated bodies. When a volley had been fired the officers would order the women and children to stand. Those who failed to do so were pricked with swords and bayonets.

A marriage license was issued in Washington today to William L Nalls, of Alexandria, Va , and Sarah Nalls, of Greenwich, Va.

HON. S. R. DONOHOE ON THE LIQUOR REVENUE

Hon, S. R. Donohoe, former State Auditor and member of tax commission, says,

Our normal increase in property holdings will insure against the possibility of the tax being raised in consequence of the loss of the Liquor tax. I have yet to hear any one who possesses any familiarity with our financial condition, express the belief that our tax rate would have to be increased.

No one need fear that the State will find it necessary to increase the present rate in the slightest degree.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

RETREAT OF THE GERMANS

Harrassed By Artillery Fire—Roads Littered with Dead Bodies

After five days of fighting the battle of the Marne has turned in favor of the English and French allies, and the German right and center are now retreating. The battle line extended from the Paris forts to Verdun. During their retreat near Meux the Germans were terribly harassed by artillery fire. The roads were littered with bodies. The British have taken 11 cannon and many prisoners on the French field.

Dispatches to Paris from the front say that in the attack on the Germans on Wednesday afternoon the British forces punished the Prussian imperial guard in the severest possible manner. The entire Jaeger regiment of rifles of the guard, a crack corps of nearly 3,000 was annihilated.

All who have witnessed the combats agree that around the Marne five Germans were killed for every ally. The Germans tried desperately to cross the Marne near Meaux. French engineers had blown up the bridges, and when the German threw pontoons across, the famous 3-inch guns of the French demolished the structures before they could be used. Sixteen times the Germans repeated the effort under a raking fire of shot and shell.

The London Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Copenhagen telegraphs: 'The condition of the Kaisers youngest son Prince Joachim, is very serious. He was wounded by a fragment of shell which passed through his right thigh without crushing the bone."

The Hamburg-American Line steamer Bethania was captured by a British cruiser Monday morning when she was two days out from Charleston. The prize, which was brought to Kingston, Jamaica, had aboard 600 tons of coal and a six months' supply of provisions for the German cruisers Dresden and Karlsruhe. The Bethania had been equipped as an auxiliary cruiser, but threw her armament overboard on sighting her pursuer. The crew was composed of 500 reservists.

TURKEY AND THE POWERS

Porte Informed That Abrogation of Treaty will not be Entertained.

Paris, Sept. 12—The Rome correspondent of the Havas agency says that dispatches from Constantinople announced that the foreign ambassadors, including the German representative, yesterday informed the Turkish government that the powers could not accept abolition of the treaty rights accorded foreigners.

London, Sept. 12—Telegraphing from Rome, a correspondent of the Daily Telegraph declares he has learned from diplomatic sources that Roumania, Greece, and Bulgaria within the last few days have signed an agreement which may be regarded as a real offensive alliance under the terms of which these three nations pledge themselves to intervene whenever it becomes necessary in order to prevent Turkey's aiding Germany and Austria in the present war.

If Turkey remains neutral, however, these three states will do the same.

Washington, Sept. 12—The German embassy yesterday received the following message from Berlin:

"The three entente powers, apprehending Turkey's intervention in favor of Germany and Austria, expressed to Turkey their readiness to consent to the abolition of capitulation in case of Turkey's neutrality during the present war.

"Turkey replied that her neutrality was not to be purchased and, drawing the consequences from the notification of the entente Ambassadors, at once issued irades revoking the capitulations."

IF HAIR'S YOUR PRIDE, USE HERPICIDE

A feeling of uncertainty, a dread of possible disappointment always goes with an "off brand" hair preparation. That is part of the purchase, just as much so as the label on the bottle.

You don't get this with a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide. It is not an experiment. You number among your acquaintances and friends hundreds who have used Herpicide with satisfaction, and you know that you can do the same. The results are always positive.

For the removal of dandruff and to check falling hair Newbro's Herpicide is reliable and often producing results that are little short of marvelous.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly." writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.
